Apartment Lakeside's light, airy rooms, and chic design epitomize the classic Swiss clean-cut style, while simultaneously maintaining a warm family-friendly ambiance.

Situated in one of the most exclusive buildings in St. Moritz, this sophisticated apartment comfortably sleeps six guests in three spacious en-suite bedrooms. Adjacent to the world-famous Badrutt's Palace Hotel, the apartment's location could not be more convenient for accessing the town's ritzy shops, restaurants, and bars.

The wood-paneled floors and modern decor is brought to life by the stunning view of Lake St. Moritz, which can be seen out of the elegantly designed sliding, glass doors. The impressive dining area, seating ten guests, means you can enjoy your meals undisturbed while food is being prepared in the well-equipped, separate kitchen. The effortless style of this apartment is further highlighted by the adjoining living room, which has a beautiful grand piano as a stylish centerpiece.

The three bedrooms, two with a king-size bed and one with a queen, all have marbled bathrooms where you can relax in either a hot bath or shower after a long day of skiing. Wake up in the master bedroom looking out over the lake, while also enjoying the added luxury of a jacuzzi bathtub. The central Bose sound system also means that a lively atmosphere can be set for the whole apartment.

Staying here you are sure to enjoy spending time on the terrace furnished with deck chairs and warm blankets, allowing you to enjoy the views reclining in luxury. The terrace also features a dining table seating six guests meaning dinner can be enjoyed under the clear night skies.
