Chalet for rental in Madulain, Switzerland with 168m2 and 5 bedrooms

The Chalet is an old Engadin farmhouse. It is ideal for either two families spending their holiday together or for a group of friends or also for grand-parents wanting to share their holiday with their children and grand-children. It is convenient and gemütlich. There are five bedrooms, two kitchen, two bathrooms and two living rooms, which allow you to have both: intimacy and community. The staircase between the two floors is open. The house has central heating. TV and VLAN is provided. There is one parking space in front of the house. More parking space nearby.

If you are looking for peace and quiet, Madulain is a true oasis. The smallest municipality of the Upper Engadin has just 230 inhabitants and yet enchants in a big way: thanks to typical Engadine houses and a well-kept Romansh culture.
